Spring Opening at E. W. Horner's

The new quarters of E. W. Horner, the tailor and dealer in men's and boys' clothing, was formally opened yesterday afternoon. The last evening when many hundred people inspected the new quarters and the display of goods, carriages, goods, carnations, etc., were sold to the public at 25 cents and up until 8 o'clock last evening over 1,000 had been distributed. Small pocket mirrors were also given as souvenirs. The opening began at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon and continued up until after 10 o'clock last evening the store was crowded the majority of the time being men. A well selected list of pictures was rendered both in the afternoon and evening by Kifer's orchestra.

Mr. Horner recently moved his store from the Martin building on North Pittsburg Street to a more commodious location in the Title & Trust building formerly occupied by J. W. McClure. By doing so he secured a floor space much larger than that of his old location and has the same more room and more space in every respect. Several improvements were also made in the room, the most important one being the changing of the floor from wood to tile. The rooms to the right of the main entrance, quite an improvement was made by this change.

The double display windows were used and attractively arranged for the occasion. Directly over the entrance was a large electrical opening glass, picture frame room, jewelers, drapery, carriages and other and however, there were pretty decorations throughout the store.

EASTER MEETING

Annual Gathering of the Woman's Missionary Society.

The annual Easter meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Trinity Lutheran church was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Duron on Race street. The meeting was one of interest and was well attended. Many readings and other readings, suggestive of Easter, were given.

The regular subject for study was "Women in the Church." A one hour and half refresher followed. Mrs. Duron and Mrs. Harry Parker, Mrs. Duron and Mrs. Thomas Duron composed the committee on refreshments.

Miss Williams' Funeral. Funeral services were held last evening at the residence of North Spring on North Street, West Side, over the remains of William McWilliams, a 12-year-old boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wolf, pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal church officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Wolf will reside at Fairchance.

Smithfield Wedding.

The marriage of Charles Rider, son of S. P. Rider of Smithfield, and Miss Lillian Miller of Fairchance, was arranged Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker, Mrs. Duron and Mrs. Thomas Duron composed the committee on refreshments.

Linen Exchange.

Edward Moore of Connellsville township and Lydia Mooby of Connellsville, were granted a marriage license in Uniontown yesterday.

Gold Dust

makes clean, healthy homes

GOLD DUST acts like magic on dirty floors, doors and woodwork. You do not have to bend until your poor back is nearly breaking in an effort to scour and scrub away the dirt. Add a heaping tea-spoonful of GOLD DUST to a pail of water and the GOLD DUST TWINS will do the rest.

GOLD DUST makes floors and doors spotlessly white. It searches out dirt, germs and impurities from every crack and crevice.

GOLD DUST makes home—"sweet home!" Save your strength by calling GOLD DUST to your aid.

GOLD DUST is sold in 5¢ size and large packages. The large package offers greater economy.

"Let the GOLD DUST TWINS do your work!"

HAVE YOU HEARD

About Those Personally Conducted Foreign Tours.

It's quite probable that you have for almost everyone in town is talking about them, but for complete information you should go to the Foreign Department of The First, National Bank of Connellsville, the direct agent. As the Courier understands the matter, you pay a certain sum, very much less than an independent tour of Europe would cost, and this covers everything, steamship passage, hotels, railway fare, cars, etc., and your comfort is looked after by an experienced guide. This plan looks mighty good to The Courier, but, as we said, you had better go to The First National for full particulars.

Ladies' Circle Exchange.

The Ladies' Circle of the Christian Church will have a luncheon and Saturday morning in the Hotel Bros. store on South Pittsburg street.

ANSWER THIS QUESTION OUT LOUD:

"Why pay out good money for common, undesirable, unknown furniture when you can get the best known, best made brands without additional cost?"

We wish to impress the fact upon your mind that the makers of the best known brands of furniture in America have chosen the Aaron store as their sole representative in this part of the country. Yet this exclusiveness does not add a cent to the price you pay for the goods in question.

You know us of old. You know we have revolutionized the retail furniture trade in Western Pennsylvania. You know we are the ones who compelled the marking of ALL prices in PLAIN FIGURES. You know we have built up a big business from an extremely modest beginning.

Misrepresenting did not do this. Advertising did not do it. The sole cause of our wonderful growth is Value Giving, courteous treatment of the public, a real and sincere desire to be of such benefit to you as to make you need us. Let these thoughts sink in. Think of them when ready to buy furniture!

A BILL TO CORRECT

THE LABOR MARKET.

The coke operators of the Connellsville region will want to know more definitely what the Fessey bill means before they give it their approval and support.

This bill provides that three minors of five years' experience shall be appointed as an examining board, whose duty it shall be to examine all miners and issue certificates to those qualified to do the work. It is further provided that no person may be employed in the mines who does not possess such a certificate.

Just what the particular qualifications are does not appear, and this is where the operators will want to be shown. If the requirements are any greater than they now are there will be a decided objection on the part of the employers. They find it hard enough now to run their mines when there is a sudden influx of business; they will doubtless oppose any further restrictions.

The underlying motive of this bill has not been disclosed, but a good guess would be that the labor organizations are seeking to have the law hold up their hands and encourage the employment of English speaking people only, because they are always more willing to enroll themselves in the labor organizations than the foreign workmen many of whom cannot speak a word of English when they arrive here seeking employment.

It looks as though the Fessey bill was drawn with a view to cornering the labor market.

ONE BOROUGH SOLICITOR SUFFICIENT.

The Town Council was not in a mood for action last night. It deferred the purchase of fire hose. It was uncertain concerning the new fire department building. It exhibited a painful lack of interest in the proposition to purchase the Duggan sewer.

The only question which excited a passing interest and which furnished forth a feast of oratory and a flow of recrimination was the attempted impeachment of J. Kirk Reiner, one of the Borough Solicitors, on the charge of incompetency. The accused made a vigorous defense and escaped the darts.

The only mistake the present Town Council made in this matter was in electing two solicitors. There is only no necessity for two solicitors but it seems that it is sometimes detrimental, especially when the solicitors do not agree.

The borough never had two solicitors until consolidation occurred when the solicitors of both consolidated when the solicitors were retained for their terms, as well for business reasons as out of courtesy.

Without naming to discriminate we repeat that one solicitor ought to be sufficient for the borough's needs. Too many cooks spoil the broth."

The Reciprocity debate is still to be fought in the House of Washington. The Democrats are committed to the measure, and their inclination to postpone it and hold it as a club over the head of the President is strong. It has been suggested that probably enough to the realization that such a course would react upon them and, as they are playing for position this session, they are anxious to make no mistakes, and to this end to take no chance.

County Superintendent Lewellyn seems to have a clutch. He has no known opposition for reelection. Brownsville has probably at least two men who will try to have him, and Lewellyn is linked with those of Blaine and Knox.

"That three days' blow was no trade wind."

The two Shinnston young men who spearheaded an electric motor and took a joy ride at breakneck speed through the dark recesses of the Boreas, intent on the greatest and most imminent danger of the workmen at the risk of their own necks, have chosen to explain their conduct in the court.

Some Scottdale people are in clover.

The West Side has awakened to the fact that persistent truancy is expensive to parents as well as to children.

York avenue is holey ground.

Junctionville's school days are not necessarily over. It is probable that a colored industrial school will be started there and this will be reduced to a minimum if action is taken speedily in writing that state appropriation of $70,000.

Barroom belligerency is unbecoming to public officials. If they do not resent the conduct of hotel officers, how can they expect others to do so?

In protecting her champagne from destruction at the hands of strikers France is protecting one of the chief industries of the Swiss American society.

The big question is anything but a cold proposition just now.

If the divorce business keeps on growing in Fayette county we will have to fit up another court room and get the legislature to give us another judge.

The big Democratic dinner at Indianapolis is said to have disclosed quite an array of Democratic Presidential ambitions, but it didn't discover just what these ambitions are to be made profitable.

Uncle Sam—I wonder if this pesky Master has of mine is on straight.

THOSE IN COMING LOCAL SHOW

The Elk Installation of New Officers
Took Place Last Night With Handsome Ceremonies in Local Lodge Rooms—Other Notes.

Special to The Courier.
SCOTTDALE, April 14.—The B. P. O. Elk No. 777 of Scottdale held their installation in their rooms last night conducted by Woods N. Carr of Uniontown. A fine banquet followed the installation. Many visitors were present. The old soldiers were also entertained. Dr. C. W. McKey was the toastmaster.

The following officers were installed: Exalted Ruler, B. P. Laughrey; Entertained Leading Knight, H. S. Stover; Entertained Loyal Knight, H. A. Keller; Lecturing Knight, H. J. Allen; Secretary, James Keegan; Treasurer, Harry Laughrey; Tiler, W. H. Shannon; Trustees, Charles H. Loucks, John P. Brennan and P. J. Mulley. A feature of the installation was that James Keegan began with his tenth consecutive term as Secretary of the Scottdale Lodge.

The Local Ministers.

The ones who will take part in the second annual Grand Army Band Minstrels at Scottdale on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings under the direction of C. E. Stout of Connellsville, are: Robert D. Barkley, James Camlin, Ed. Ahern, Frank Keller, Joseph Scott, John T. Hamby, Walter Lockard and Sam Miller. The soloists are Elmer Morrow, Simon Miller, George Laing and David Davis. The interlocutor will be John Gordon. The chorus is made up of Harry H. Lynn, John Lippis, Russell Hyde, Reginald Humphries, Walter Valley, Charles Lovelock, Charles Cunningham, Robert Camlin, O. P. Koch, Walter G. Cope, John Vallance, Harry Hamilton, John A. Taylor, Edward D. Anderson, Edward H. Anderson, Russell Stockbury, Harry Koontz, Walter Rung and Charles Meyers.

The band will open the second part of the show with popular melodies, lead by J. Frank Hardy, who will also have charge of the G. A. R. orchestra. Following the band there will appear the Y. M. C. A. Physical Director F. M. Schonta, an Indian club swinging turn, Scott and Evans in minstrelsy will be the next number and it is said to be a scene. Hookenbury and Caxo will follow in musical act far above the ordinary. A tumbling act by F. M. Schonta and Ralph G. Walker will be the next turn. The costume will be the richest shown here by any local talent show. The stage settings will be in the form of a soldiers' camp and will doubtless make a more favorable impression.

Big Pay Tomorrow.
The pay for Scottdale and vicinity Saturday will probably be the highest one ever put out by the concerns which take care of two weeks of work at that time. It is estimated the Elast pay will amount to approximately $50,000, which is a big amount for a two weeks' pay in town the size of Scottdale, and in fact in a town a good deal larger. The heaviest contribution will come from the Scottdale plant and the Old Meadow plant of the American Sheet & Tin Plate Company. These two mills will pay approximately $35,000, one of the heaviest if not the heaviest pay ever made here by them. The United States Cast Iron Pipe & Foundry Company will pay out about $17,000, another big pay, while it is estimated that the Scottdale Furnace will hand over about $5,000. Among other concerns here that will pay Saturday are the Scottdale Foundry & Machine Company, the United States Casket Company, the Continental Silver Company, West Overton Distilling Company, J. W. Ruth's Planing Mill, the Broadway Planing Mill Company, the Crescent Manufacturing Company, the printing offices and other concerns aggregating pay that will add $8,000 to the $77,000 before named, making a total of $85,000.

"The Waiting Pot."

Mr. Walker Whiteside and the original New York cast in Zangwill's famous play "The Waiting Pot" at the Solson Theatre Thursday, April 20. Box office opens Monday, April 17. Prices 50c to $1.00. Both phones.

Brushed by Auto.

A little son of W. D. Stone was struck by John McCurdy's auto yesterday, but fortunately only suffered a few bruises. He was taken to Dr. E. P. Weddell's office. The report is current that the child's arm was broken, but this was not true.

Services on Sunday.

At the United Evangelical Church, Arthur Avenue and Grove Street, Rev. H. D. Seine, pastor, sermon Sabbath at 7:30 P. M. Subject: "The Human Christ." Owing to the baptismal services at McClellan in the afternoon, the Sunday school will be held at 3 P. M. next Sabbath. In the evening children will be baptized and adults will also be baptized by sprinkling; also reception of members. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 P. M. All are cordially invited to these services.

One True Medicinal Whiskey

Beware of imitations and substitutes unscrupulous dealers tell you are "just as good as" Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

These cheap concoctions are foisted on the people with the intent to deceive by dealers mindful of their profits only and caring nothing for the health of their patrons. Some try to make you believe it is Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Others go as far as to refill our bottles with these concoctions and endeavor to fool the people into buying their spurious goods as the genuine. Keep a close watch and do not buy one of these refilled bottles.

Substitutes Are Dangerous

When a remedy has been before the public for more than half a century, has been prescribed and used by the best doctors and prominent hospitals, and has carried the blessings of health into as many thousands of homes as Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has, imitations are bound to arise.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey Is Beneficial

It is an absolutely pure distillation of selected clean grain thoroughly malted. Its palatability and its freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach. It has been used with remarkable results in the treatment of consumption, pneumonia, grip, coughs, colds, asthma, malaria, low fevers, stomach troubles and all wasted and diseased conditions.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey was the only whiskey that was taxed by the Government as a medicine during the Spanish-American war. The genuine Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold in sealed bottles only. The "Old Chemist's Head" is on the label and over the cork is an engraved seal. Be certain this seal is unbroken. Sold by druggists, grocers and dealers everywhere ordered, $1.00 a large bottle.

Anniversary of Assassination of President Abraham Lincoln Today.

Special to The Courier.
WASHINGTON, April 14.—One of the notable anniversaries of important events connected with the history of the Civil War period in this country, is the forty-sixth anniversary of the assassination of President Abraham Lincoln, who was shot and mortally wounded at Ford's theatre by John Wilkes Booth, an actor, while attending a performance of "Our American Cousin" on the evening of April 14, 1865. In commemoration of the day the flags on all public buildings were at half mast all day and commemorative services were held by many of the patriotic societies.

The bloody sectional struggle between the North and the South had just been ended by the surrender of Gen. Lee and the country was rejoicing over the conclusion of the Civil War which had cost so many precious lives and enormous sacrifices of money. President Lincoln had been busy all day. In the morning he had a long conference with his son, Capt. Lincoln, in the course of which he dissuaded him from continuing a military career. Later in the forenoon the President attended the last meeting with his Cabinet. All the members of the Cabinet were present on that occasion, excepting Mr. Seward, the Secretary of State, who had broken his jaw by a fall from his horse. His seat was occupied by Gen. Grant. The terms of Lee's surrender were discussed and approved and President Lincoln strongly expressed himself against any harsh measures in the South.

During the afternoon the President received many visitors and when the evening came, he was tired and would have liked to rest, but he did not wish to disappoint the crowd at the theatre and, accompanied by the members of his family, occupied the stage box, especially decorated for the occasion. It was after the close of the first act that Booth fired the bullet that killed him.

Shoes for Easter

You are not well-dressed unless your feet are. In a careful costume the shoes are as important as the hat. If you make Regal Shoes the foundation of your Easter costume you have begun right.

Why Regal Styles are Authentic and Fresh

The Regal straight-line selling system, direct from factory to wearer, is not alone economical—it is quick. It takes other shoe makers, selling through the usual way, from four to six months to get a new style to the public.

Regal does this in from three to six WEEKS!

The newest Regal styles now on sale left the Regal factories within the past three weeks. They are not guesses or "trial styles," as shoes that were made four months ago must be. They are reproductions of actual, custom-made styles originated and approved for this Spring's wear by the acknowledged authorities of footwear fashion in New York and London.

REGAL SHOES

FOR MEN AND WOMEN

Regal style-watchers are on duty constantly in the centers of fashion. No milliner or dressmaker keeps in closer touch with new styles, or follows them more promptly.

And Regal Shoes are sold to you at cost, plus only 5 per cent. commission and the cost of selling and delivery.

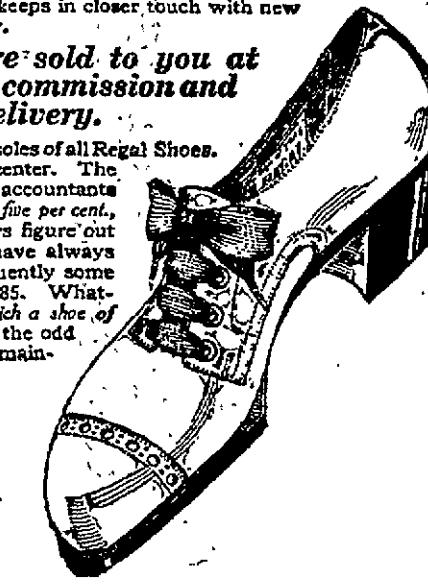

This stamp will be found on the soles of all Regal Shoes.

The price of the pair appears in the center. The price is verified by chartered public accountants and certified by them as being cost plus five per cent., plus cost of selling. It does not always figure out in "even half-dollar" prices that you have always had to pay for good shoes. It is frequently some "odd" price, like $3.35 or $4.65 or $5.85. Whatever it is, it is the lowest price for which a shoe of that quality can be sold. You save all the odd change that you formerly gave up to maintain the traditional prices.

Regal Prices are now

$3.35 to $5.85

A Guarantee To Rheumatics

Treatment of Rheumatism Revolutionized by Simple Remedy Which is Absolutely Guaranteed.

Startling new features are presented in the new remedy called D-M-I-1, which has lately been the subject of much interest among physicians and with rheumatism and lumber pain and neuralgia. Physicians, too, have given this remedy an approval which has never been accorded to other rheumatism remedies. Dr. G. W. Bissell, in Oklahoma and the Southwest, for his success in the treatment of rheumatism, that he is willing to stake his professional reputation on the fact that D-M-I-1 is the best remedy for rheumatism. D-M-I-1 has produced results almost unbelievable. Not only for fresh, new cases, but also for long, chronic cases, and has relieved the most severe of the most remarkable remedies ever produced. It has the unique feature of "regulating" to the patient by means of patent colt leather, the progress of disease and elimination.

"G. W. Bissell, of New York, says: 'I had rheumatism for seven years. I started D-M-I-1 and by George, C. T. Phillips, of New York, says: 'I suffered with terrible rheumatism for five years, all crippled up for days at a time. I began taking D-M-I-1 and in an improvement within two days, so I told my doctor. He said, 'Get D-M-I-1 at your druggist's at $1.00 a bottle. If you are satisfied with it, you will be, get 6 bottles for $5.00, and get 6 more. If you are not satisfied, can not supply you. It is a good receipt of price by the D-M-I-1 Medicine Co., 2715 Lincoln Ave., Chicago, Ill. The first bottle will convince every sufferer.'

"Now did you happen to fall in with the old boy?"

"Flung him up" said Phillip, with sudden fire. "You know, this same crowd, of whom Lillian was at that time the head, led my father into a carefully prepared stock deal. It was as deliberate a plucking as any greenhorn ever got at the hands of a lot of confidence men, and it not only broke his spirit, but it broke his heart. It left him without ambition, and when he died he left me absolutely penniless. Even as a boy I planned to get even, but I knew I must wait. Down south the chance came. I made that oil strike, then luck pointed in on me, and I began at last to make a lot of money. One day about a year ago I read in a paper of Breed's anger against this same Wall street coterie. I had formed some good acquaintances down there, and among them was a man who knew Breed personally. He gave me a letter of introduction. I then went to see Breed and proposed this plan. He returned an evasive answer, and I went back south. Shortly after I returned there, however, I discovered that Breed had put into operation the system by which I suggested he drain the country of its currency. I discovered, too, that there were spies watching me and delving into my entire past history. I said nothing, but I made up my mind then that my time had come. Sure enough, Breed finally sent for me. He had employed over fifty men for nearly a year to examine every instant of my career, and he was satisfied. I spent a week at Forest Lakes evolving the plan in detail, and you know the rest."

"It's a wonderful thing," declared Renaissance, with a long breath. "It's a romance!"

"There is more romance in modern business life than there was in the days of lance and shield," declared Phillip.

They had now reached the stone wall that surrounded Forest Lakes and were admitted unchallenged. At the door old Wilkins met Phillip, but he was no more than within when there was a rustle of silk in the hall and Lillian came eagerly forward to meet him.

"I understand," she said warmly, "that you are the conquering hero."

"I have done what I was told to do."

"But you have done it well. Now it is time that you come home to get your reward."

"I have been fairly well rewarded as it is," he replied. "By the way, I have brought with me an old friend of yours."

She turned and almost frowned as they were joined by young Renaissance, who had stopped a moment to get something from the car.

"We are glad to see you again, Mr. Renaissance," she said. "Mr. Renaissance has been expecting you for several days and, like a dutiful nephew, you must pay your respects to her at once. You will find her in her own apartment."

"I will see you later, Bert," Kelvin called after him as he went up the stairs. Then to Lillian, "Where is Mr. Breed?"

"He is just trying to make the eighth hole out back of the stable, and I think he must be at about the hundredth stroke for it," she laughed. "I will go out and bring him while you remove the dust. Go right up to your old rooms; they have been waiting for you ever since you were here the other time. They were becoming very tame for you."

Sam passed them in the hall with the luggage.

"When you get the luggage into Mr. Kelvin's room, Sam," directed Lillian, "you will find Lucy waiting for you in the kitchen."

Phillip turned into his apartments with a feeling of relief. He was very glad to rest for awhile from the tumult of the financial crowd, to leave all the nervous tension of that tremendous tragedy behind him. Sam opened the luggage and put it away and had just gone down the back stairs when there came a timid knock at the door. Phillip opened it to a maid who had come with towels and stepped back in surprise.

"Miss!" he cried.

"Why, Phillip!" exclaimed Elsie. "I didn't know you were to be here."

"Nor I you," said he. "How does it come about?"

"That letter you gave to father," she explained. "I came with him, applied for a place as maid and got it. Father is head gardener, thanks to you, and is perfectly happy. We are both doing very nicely. Did Miss Lillian know that it was you who recommended these rooms?"

"Why, certainly," replied Phillip. "I was here before."

Elsie said nothing, but she wondered. Phillip had seen Phillip's letter to her grandfather; in fact, Elsie had used it, after it had served its purpose for her father, as an introduction for herself, and she felt sure that it had secured the place. Moreover, Lillian had causally asked about Phillip, and Elsie had told in glowing terms how good he was, yet Lillian had never mentioned that she knew him, and even now, when she told Elsie to bring the towels to this room, she did not mention Phillip's name.

"Does she treat you nicely?" Phillip suddenly demanded.

"Oh, yes; very nicely, indeed," she replied. And Phillip knew that she was not telling him all the truth. "We are all getting on well now," she said. "Grace has brought her children to live with us, and with what father and I earn we can do splendidly. We can even save a little money."

"I am glad of that," he said and stopped, not knowing what else to say.

CHAPTER VII

IT was while they were standing, still somewhat confused, that Lillian appeared in the doorway and cast a sharp glance at them both.

"You have not mended that pink frock of mine, Elsie," said Lillian in honeyed tones. "Really, my dear, I had hoped to find it done. I would like to wear it this afternoon. Better keep it to right away."

Elsie nodded and hurriedly left the room.

"I am afraid you are a sad girl," charged Lillian, shaking her finger at Phillip. "Already you are embarrassing that pretty little maid whom you were accidentally klad enough to send to me."

"Is Mr. Breed come in?" asked Phillip, deliberately ignoring her accusation.

"Now I know there is something in all this situation," she laughed, though still somewhat piqued. "Yes, Mr. Breed has come in, and he is waiting for you in the library."

The girl laughed for answer. It was a good cause.

"It is all in a good cause," Breed continued, as if arguing against some accuser. "Business will be healthier. The Stock Exchange, instead of a mere clearing house for country bucket shops, will become once more a place for the legitimate exchange of securities. It is great work I have done for the country, but they won't realize it until I am dead. Your deals, Phillip? Is every one closed that could be closed?"

"Every one," returned Phillip with satisfaction. "In a few cases I could not secure stocks I wanted, but for the greater part I did. Those who could not pay had nothing to pay with."

"Right again!" and once more Henry Breed nodded his head vigorously.

"The stocks were the main thing after we got back all our cash. Come! I will show you something that no one ever saw but Lillian and myself. Where is Zalphan?" He looked cautiously all round the room.

"He is out in the park," said Lillian.

"I don't want him to see or to know. Come this way."

How Are You, Friend?

When spring comes round, do you feel weak and languid, and are you troubled by biliousness and indigestion, and by a heavy, sluggish, lifeless feeling?

Are you ever troubled with humor or eruptions or pimples?

When you get a cut or scratch, is it slow to heal and apt to fester?

Are you troubled with a thick, muddy complexion, or with black-heads or blotches?

Do you have cold-sores or styes or run-rounds?

Do you ever have boils or abscesses?

Did you ever suffer from a carbuncle?

Or a felon?

Have you had running, open sores or ulcers which would not heal?

Do you have swellings or tumors? Are you of a scrofulous tendency?

Are you subject to chills and fever or any form of malarial?

Are you pale and is your blood thin and watery?

If so, the trouble is in the blood. There is scarcely a family which does not suffer at times in some of these ways; and all, man, woman or child, need to put their blood in good condition by taking

Pinkham's Blood Purifier

See What It Did for This Girl!

"It is with a feeling of gratitude that I write to you, for after taking your medicine for some time I feel that I am cured and cannot be thankful enough for it. I have been a great sufferer."

"I was always so bloodless, my blood was almost turned to water;

"I took Pinkham's Blood Purifier and it was not long before I was perfectly cured and was strong and well again." —Maurice Rowley,

A Guarantee To Rheumatics

Treatment of Rheumatism Revolutionized by Simple Remedy Which is Absolutely Guaranteed.

Startling new features are presented in the new remedy called D-M-I-1, which has lately been the subject of much interest among physicians and nurses. Physicians, too, have given this remedy an approval which has never been accorded to other rheumatism remedies. Dr. G. W. Bissell, in Oklahoma and the Southwest, for his success in the treatment of rheumatism, that he is willing to stake his professional reputation on the fact that D-M-I-1 is the best remedy for rheumatism. D-M-I-1 has produced results almost unbelievable. Not only for fresh, new cases, but also for long, chronic cases, and has relieved the most severe of the most remarkable remedies ever produced. It has the unique feature of "regulating" to the patient by means of patent colt leather, the progress of disease and elimination.

"G. W. Bissell, of New York, says:

"I had rheumatism for seven years. I started D-M-I-1 and by George, C. T. Phillips, of New York, says: 'I suffered with terrible rheumatism for five years, all crippled up for days at a time. I began taking D-M-I-1 and in an improvement within two days, so I told my doctor. He said, 'Get D-M-I-1 at your druggist's at $1.00 a bottle. If you are satisfied with it, you will be, get 6 bottles for $5.00, and get 6 more. If you are not satisfied, can not supply you. It is a good receipt of price by the D-M-I-1 Medicine Co., 2715 Lincoln Ave., Chicago, Ill. The first bottle will convince every sufferer.'

"Flung him up" said Phillip, with sudden fire. "You know, this same crowd, of whom Lillian was at that time the head, led my father into a carefully prepared stock deal. It was as deliberate a plucking as any greenhorn ever got at the hands of a lot of confidence men, and it not only broke his spirit, but it broke his heart. It left him without ambition, and when he died he left me absolutely penniless. Even as a boy I planned to get even, but I knew I must wait. Down south the chance came. I made that oil strike, then luck pointed in on me, and I began at last to make a lot of money. One day about a year ago I read in a paper of Breed's anger against this same Wall street coterie. I had formed some good acquaintances down there, and among them was a man who knew Breed personally. He gave me a letter of introduction. I then went to see Breed and proposed this plan. He returned an evasive answer, but I made up my mind then that my time had come. Sure enough, Breed finally sent for me. He had employed over fifty men for nearly a year to examine every instant of my career, and he was satisfied. I spent a week at Forest Lakes evolving the plan in detail, and you know the rest."

"It's a wonderful thing," declared Renaissance, with a long breath. "It's a romance!"

"There is more romance in modern business life than there was in the days of lance and shield," declared Phillip.

They had now reached the stone wall that surrounded Forest Lakes and were admitted unchallenged. At the door old Wilkins met Phillip, but he was no more than within when there was a rustle of silk in the hall and Lillian came eagerly forward to meet him.

"I understand," she said warmly, "that you are the conquering hero."

"I have done what I was told to do."

"But you have done it well. Now it is time that you come home to get your reward."
